Big Animals. Wild Encounters. Legendary Diving.

If diving with giant mantas, pods of dolphins, schooling hammerheads, and curious sharks is on your bucket list –Socorro delivers.

Located 250 miles off Mexico's Pacific coast, the Revillagigedo Archipelago (better known as Socorro) is one of the world's most remote and exhilarating dive destinations. This is liveaboard-only diving, where every descent brings the unexpected and every dive feels cinematic.

Explore it all aboard the Rocio del Mar, a comfortable liveaboard offering six full days of diving, expert guides, and a top-tier crew dedicated to exceptional experiences above and below the surface.

This is not sightseeing diving. This is raw, immersive, world-class diving—remote, powerful, and unforgettable.
